Sudden Spiritual Insight in Traffic on Penn Avenue

TIME & LOCATION: 8:15 a.m., Wednesday, Penn Avenue, traveling from Strip District to Fort Pitt Bridge, one-lane traffic, parked cars on the right along the curb.

One thing I remember from my training in public speaking is that when participants begin to use the new phrases or phraseology that you are using in their comments or questions, you are making an impact. They are likely getting the content and moving toward some level of agreement and acceptance. Trust is building and you might well be getting your point across. There's a chance that this will result in behavior change.

Professional speakers are trained to look for these signals and identify the individuals who are demonstrating the potential. You then encourage these vocal ones' participation because they now are the most credible teachers of the material in the room. You invite them to talk about the subject matter more than you speak about it. Their peers will be more influenced by them than by you. Your job is to affirm the good content and subtly redirect the unclear or mistaken content.

Bottom line: when others say and do what you have said and done, your participation in their lives has introduced some newness or an alternative worthwhile way of thinking. In rarer cases some positive, new behavior change may have been initiated.

So as I'm inching my way through the bumper to bumper, crowded Penn Avenue one-lane traffic; the driver in front of me seems to notice the parked car to his right indicate a desire to enter the traffic flow. He suddenly stops as if to make room for the parked car to join; the potential enterer must not have moved quickly enough for the once-generous-feeling driver because he frustratedly closed the way-in to the curbside car.

I didn't like the stops and starts and just wanted to get to the bridge. As I passed, I didn't want to look at the parked car's driver; but did. I hesitantly decided to make room for the driver; and after a short but seemingly endless entry period, she steered the car into the flow of traffic. I had a sense of relief, hope and self-satisfaction. We were crawling our way to the Fort Pitt Bridge.

All was well, and my patience was apparent — even to me — as I was pleased with my friendly, cordial driving prowess. Then that woman, who I went out of my way to help, decided she was going to let another parked car into the flow — which now I considered "the laboriously slow-moving flow." Egads! How dare she!

Then a gentle nudge formed in me and arrived in my conscious mind. "When they do as you have done, you've likely influenced a positive behavior change." This spiritual insight led me to turn my frustration into peace. It made incredulity become gratitude. It made a frustrated man, milliseconds away from viciously honking the horn at an inconvenience, become a satisfied contributor to making the world a better place. Indeed it was a great trip home.

Announcements

Parish Notes. At Monday night's meeting, St. Brendan's Vestry: agreed to provide a giving tab on the church website so that parishioners and others may make online contributions; discussed plans to hold a pre-announced evacuation drill after a 10 a.m. Sunday service to enhance parishioner security; reviewed procedures for greeting, registering and connecting with new members.

–Tom Waseleski, Senior Warden (twaseleski@comcast.net)

Sticks & Strings knitting will have the first knitting group of the season Thursday, September 12. That's TONIGHT. All are welcome with any kind of knitting, crocheting, etc. We will meet at 7 p.m. in the library. If you have any questions call Joni Reis at 412-366-8942. Looking forward to beginning a new season!

Hitchhike through the music that shaped the '60s & '70s, featuring Kim Losego, Wally Pease and Richie Dugan.

Artists settled in Laurel Canyon, California, and impacted the music scene in the late '60s & '70s – artists such as Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, James Taylor, Linda Ronstadt, Dan Fogelberg, and even the Beatles for a while. Join St. Brendan's for a night of folk-rock tomorrow, September 13 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Call for reservations at 412-364-5974 or e-mail stbrendans@comcast.net. Admission is a $15 minimum donation.

Ministry Fair. Interested in what we have to offer at St. Brendan's and what we are involved in as a congregation? The Ministry Fair will help to explain some of the opportunities at our church. Meet the people who head these activities and ministries and learn what they are about on September 15 after the 10 a.m. service. Stop by and get acquainted during Hospitality Hour.

If you lead a ministry and would like to have a spot to place some information on a table for the fair, please contact Janice Moore at chicago@zoominternet.net.

Quilt Raffle. Two beautiful handmade quilts have been donated to St. Brendan's to raise funds for our parish. One is a Pittsburgh Penguins quilt made just in time for hockey season! The other is an animal print quilt made by Nancy Skavish, a beloved founding member who passed away a few years ago. Consequently, the Book Club will be sponsoring a quilt raffle, and tickets will be sold after church and during upcoming fundraising events. Be sure to check out these beautiful works of art and purchase some tickets. You just might win! Proceeds will benefit children's Christian formation efforts here at St. Brendan's.

Feel free to see Chris Botti or Pat Carl if you need more info. Thank you!

Adult Formation Study – Job and "The Mystery of Suffering: Spiritual Reflections" by Richard Rohr. The Book of Job is almost too difficult to understand. However, Job has a lot to teach us about his relationship with God and suffering. Join us for a nine-week study, facilitated by Ruth Getz, on the important themes woven throughout the Book of Job and a time of reflection on the mystery of suffering. This book is easy to read and understand! You may sign up for this study which is being offered Sundays from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. and Wednesdays from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. This series will begin Sunday, September 15. Books may be purchased new or used from Amazon (amazon.com).

Everyone who wants to be considered a member of St. Brendan's is invited to have a church mailbox. Our boxes are used for communications from the parish secretary, the priests, vestry members and others in the congregation. In your box you may find your quarterly contribution record, music to learn if you're in a choir, lessons to teach in Sunday School if you're teaching, a book to read for the next Book Club meeting, Altar Guild information, sewing supplies if you're in Sticks & Strings, or other goodies. You are welcome to store your own Bible or other church-related materials in yours.

The mailboxes are in between the sets of doors to the sanctuary. Last names beginning with A through P are on the left side; R-Z are on the right across from the coat rack. The names started out in alphabetical order but newer members will find that their names may not be where they should be. Keep looking – they're there!

Families using more than one last name are listed by the name coming first alphabetically. Two or more families with the same last name have their initials listed.

Please contact Rob Latta at gelrwl@live.com if your name is misspelled or missing.

St. Brendan's Rite 13 Program will begin on Monday, September 16, at 6 p.m. and will meet the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month. This year, we will have two groups: one group will consist of those starting their third year in Rite 13, and the other group will consist of those in their first or second year. All youth will start each session together with pizza and an opening prayer, then break into their groups for the lessons. All youth from 6th grade through 10th grade are invited to join Rite 13.

The purpose of Rite 13 is to “deepen one’s relationship with Jesus through the study of scripture, through discussions of modern life lived with faith, and by exploring one’s call to service.” We are looking forward to a dynamic year with these two groups of wonderful young people as we learn lessons about self, society, prayer, sexuality, and spirituality – all based upon scripture.

For more information, please contact Allison at aaklrn@comcast.net or Julie at jlsphone1@gmail.com.

Bible Conversations will resume Tuesday, September 17 at 10:30 a.m.

Next Tuesday, September 17, will be the last Tai Chi session for 2019. Thaddeus, who leads the class, is giving himself a three-month respite. He plans to re-convene the class in January.

A donation to the Brendan’s Family & Friends fund is the perfect way to honor a special person or event. BFF funds are earmarked for unbudgeted building needs. Please pick up a BFF card in the narthex and make a donation today. Thank you for making a difference at St. Brendan’s by becoming a BFF donor.

---

Save the date: Blessing of the Animals, October 6.

Stay tuned for more information.

Brendan’s Boots. The parish hiking group will explore the George and Guy Trail in Emerald View Park, Mt. Washington, on Monday, September 23. Hikers will meet at 9 a.m. at the church and carpool to the trailhead. Lunch will follow at Bigham Tavern. Everyone welcome; feel free to bring a friend. For more info, contact Tom Waseleski, twaseleski@comcast.net.

St. Brendan’s Justice Ministry recommends how we can make a difference.

Numerous experts have said the key to real political change is to get more citizens to register and to get them to the polls to vote. We at St. Brendan’s want to do our part.

In the entrance to the church you will find voter registration forms. They have the mailing address for Allegheny County. There are a few without the address for those who may not live in the county. Please affix a first-class stamp.

We are urging each parishioner to take three. When you are out to eat, ask your server if he or she is registered. Ask the clerk at the grocery store. Many service workers do not have the time to seek out a form and register. Ask your friends and neighbors, too.

If we all registered three people, we could make a real difference locally and even nationally. October 7 is the deadline to be registered for this year’s November 5 election. Applications for an absentee ballot must be made by October 29.

We will also have information in the coming weeks on some registration drives at schools and local stores.

Quiet Evening Prayer. The next candlelight Evening Prayer service will be at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, September 25. Please add this date/time to your calendar if you would like to attend. The service includes Taize music and silent prayer, reflection, or meditation – with Communion afterwards for those who wish to remain. This is a perfect way to recover from a busy and, perhaps stressful, day. Bring a friend and enjoy this quiet time with the Lord.

North Hills Food Pantry. For the month of September we are asking you to donate canned items, fruits or vegetables. The North Hills Food Bank needs any kind of non-perishable food. Please remember, no glass jars. If you have any questions, contact Larry Toler, ldtoler@aol.com. Thank you for your support.

Easy Funds for St. Brendan’s! You may not know it, but St. Brendan’s earns 5% for each gift card that we sell! Basically, if you eat, you can raise funds for our church! It’s easy! Just visit the vestry member who is selling gift cards in the narthex each Sunday after the 10 a.m. service, buy a gift card for Kuhn’s and/or Giant Eagle, do your usual grocery shopping or gasoline pumping, then pay for it with the card purchased at St. Brendan’s! Thanks for your support of the easiest fundraiser in town!

Please see below the new Hospitality Hour schedule that begins this October and runs for 12 months. It’s a tradition at St. Brendan’s that each household is assigned to host hospitality in the social hall after the 10 a.m. Sunday service once a year. Hospitality is a great time for members and visitors to connect, and the efforts of each host are appreciated by everyone. If you are unavailable to host on the date you’ve been assigned, please switch dates with someone, then let Katie know. Thank you for doing your part in this important ministry.

CRIES Advocacy. Christian Response In Emergency Situations meets monthly on the third Sunday in the library after the 10 a.m. service to determine distribution of the parish's outreach tithe each month. Each person present has an equal voice and vote on where the money goes.

This month the CRIES Committee has decided to give the entire September distribution to relief for victims of Hurricane Dorian. Due to the Ministry Fair, there will not be a CRIES meeting this Sunday. The next meeting will be Sunday, October 20. All are welcome.

St. Brendan's Justice Ministry recommends ...

Please Stop! Please stop your day, September 20, and join with the wise voices of our courageous children.

What? A global strike, in 4,000+ cities, by young people seeking action on climate change.

When? September 20

11:00 a.m. – Interfaith Gathering Service

11:30 a.m. – Peace Walk & Silent Meditation

12:00 p.m. – Student Climate Strike

Where? 11:00 a.m. – Trinity Cathedral, 328 Sixth Avenue, with a 10-minute peace walk to City Hall, 414 Grant Street, Pittsburgh

Why? To protect their future and that of tomorrow's children of all species

Pittsburgh's Interfaith Community

Please call Thaddeus Popovich, 412-327-5988, with questions and possible carpooling. Remember the 20th is a Friday.

Used ink cartridges. St. Brendan's benefits from donations of used computer ink cartridges. Please bring them to church and place the cartridge in the box near Katie's office. Thank you.

Do you have a special prayer request? You can write one and leave it on the prayer plate by Regis' office. On Sunday those prayers are offered up to God during the 8:00 a.m. service. Each week they are collected by the Community of Hope and added to their daily prayers. You can also email prayer requests to stbrendans.coh@gmail.com. Community of Hope members will include those persons in daily prayers or send out a prayer via text or email to someone if requested. All prayers and requests are kept confidential.

Trinity Cathedral Walk-In Ministry. Every five weeks Brendanites help to staff the Walk-In Ministry at Trinity Cathedral downtown, feeding and clothing 70 to 90 desperately needy people. You can help by donating children's diapers; new, white athletic socks and underwear for women and men; toothpaste, razors and travel size cans of shaving cream. Please leave donations in the wicker basket outside Regis's office. If you might be interested in volunteering at the cathedral in person, please see Linda Schneider, Meg Overby or Tim Austin.

Run for Thy Neighbor 5K (Saturday, September 28).

Mark your calendars and spread the word! Christ Episcopal Church, North Hills, Run for Thy Neighbor 5K will be held Saturday, September 28, at 9:00 a.m. Participants will meet at the Harmar Shelter located near Pie Traynor Field and swimming pool in North Park. Come ready, rain or shine, to run, walk, cheer, sponsor and/or volunteer the day of the 5K!

This year's proceeds will benefit HEARTH, located in the North Hills. HEARTH provides transitional services and housing for families who are survivors of domestic violence or other trauma and experience homelessness. HEARTH helps participants become independent and economically self-sufficient by providing housing, basic needs, health services, transportation, and much more including a requirement to return to school for training. <http://runforthyneighbor5k.org/>.

Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's Public Address (Saturday, October 5).

Would you be interested in going to Wheeling, W.Va., to hear and see Presiding Bishop Michael Curry? In celebration of the 200th anniversary of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Wheeling, the church will feature a special presentation by the presiding bishop at Wesbanco Arena at 3 p.m. on Saturday, October 5. Wheeling is about one hour and 30 minutes from St. Brendan's. Tickets are $5. Click on the link to purchase yours:

<https://www.etix.com/ticket/p/5841774/bishop-michael-curry-wheeling-wesbanco-arena>. Contact Regis or Frances Kinley if you're interested or sign up in the narthex.

ST. BRENDAN'S MISSION

Jesus said, "I have come to give life – life in all its fullness." John 10:10.
Our mission is the realization of fullness through:
the worship of God; service to the world;
active concern for each other;
and education to expand mind and spirit.
